Point of Contact: Eric Jourdan

What should the users of the enmacc platform know about your company?

Storengy is n°1 natural gas storage operator in Europe. They offer each year around 100 TWh of capacities (aquifers and salt caverns). Storengy is also heavily involved in green transition, via biomethane (2nd biomethane producer in France via ENGIE BiOZ) and green H2 production.

Do you trade power, gas or both?

We trade gas only.

Do you primarily or exclusively trade standard products or profiles?

We trade standard products.

Which balancing zones are relevant for you?

PEG

Do you also trade flex, tranches or index products?

No.

What are your expectations from enmacc?

Being able to trade anonymously and getting better prices.

Are you interested in new counterparties?

Yes, if we can get better prices on enmacc.

On what basis can new counterparties do business with you?

EFET.

Who is the point of contact in your company for setting up new counterparties?

Eric Jourdan

Email: eric.jourdan@storengy.com

Are you interested in showing indicative prices to companies which you do not yet have a framework agreement with?

Not at this time as we're currently trading more on the buy side.
